Field Marſhal Sir George Howard,
Maſter of the Rolls,
Mr. Secretary Dundas.

By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS on the Twenty-ninth Day of this inſtant Month of October, divers Perſons, riotouſly aſſembled and ſtationed in different Places in Our City of Weſtminſter, proceeded to commit certain daring and highly criminal Outrages, in groſs Violation of the Publick Peace, to the actual Danger of Our Royal Perſon, and to the Interruption of Our Paſſage to and from Our Parliament; We, therefore, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, in purſuance of an Addreſs from Our Two Houſes of Parliament, do hereby enjoin all Magiſtrates, and all other Our loving Subjects, to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to diſcover and cauſe to be apprehended the Authors, Actors and Abettors concerned in ſuch Outrages, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law: And We do hereby promiſe, That any Perſon or Perſons, other than thoſe actually concerned in doing any Act by which Our Royal Perſon was immediately endangered, who ſhall give Information, ſo as that any of the Authors, Actors or Abettors concerned in ſuch Outrages as aforeſaid, may be apprehended and brought to Juſtice, ſhall receive a Reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, to be paid on Conviction of every ſuch Offender; which ſaid Sum of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS the Lords Commiſſioners of Our Treaſury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly. And We do further promiſe, that any Perſon or Perſons concerned in ſuch Outrages as aforeſaid, other than ſuch as were actually concered in any Act by which Our Royal Perſon was immediately endangered, who ſhall give Information,

[ Price Three Shillings. ]

Information, ſo as that any of ſuch Authors, Actors or Abettors as aforeſaid ſhall be apprehended and brought to Juſtice, ſhall, upon Conviction of ſuch Offender or Offenders, receive Our moſt gracious Pardon.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the Thirty-firſt Day of October, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Ninety-five, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it hath been repreſented to Us, That, immediately before the Opening of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, a great Number of Perſons were collected in Fields in the Neighbourhood of the Metropolis, by Advertiſements and Hand-Bills, and that divers inflammatory Diſcourſes were delivered to the Perſons ſo collected, and divers Proceedings were had, tending to create groundleſs Jealouſy and Diſcontent, and to endanger the Publick Peace, and the Quiet and Safety of Our faithful Subjects: And whereas it hath been alſo repreſented to Us, That divers ſeditious and treaſonable Papers have been lately diſtributed, tending to excite evil-diſpoſed Perſons to Acts endangering Our Royal Perſon: And whereas ſuch Proceedings have been followed, on the Day on which the preſent Seſſion of Parliament commenced, by Acts of Tumult and Violence, and by daring and highly criminal Outrages, in direct Violation of the Publick Peace, to the immediate Danger of Our Royal Perſon, and to the Interruption of Our Paſſage to and from Our Parliament: And whereas great Uneaſineſs and Anxiety hath been produced in the Minds of Our faithful Subjects, by Rumours and Apprehenſions that ſeditious and unlawful Aſſemblies are intended to be held by evil-diſpoſed Perſons, and that ſuch other criminal Practices as aforeſaid are intended to be repeated: We, therefore, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to enjoin and require, and We do hereby enjoin and require all Juſtices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Conſtables, and all other Our loving Subjects throughout Our Kingdom, to uſe the utmoſt Diligence to diſcourage, prevent, and ſuppreſs all ſeditious and unlawful Aſſemblies: And We do ſpecially enjoin and command all Our loving Subjects, who ſhall have Cauſe to ſuſpect that any ſuch Aſſemblies are intended to be held in any Part of Our Kingdom, to give the earlieſt Information thereof to the Magiſtrates of the ſeveral Diſtricts within which it ſhall be ſuſpected that the ſame are intended to be held; and if ſuch Aſſemblies ſhall, nevertheleſs, in any Caſe, be actually held, to be aiding and aſſiſting, on being required thereto by the Civil Magiſtrate, in cauſing Perſons delivering inflammatory Diſcourſes in ſuch Aſſemblies, and other principal Actors therein, to be forthwith apprehended, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law. And We have alſo thought fit, by and with the Advice aforeſaid, to enjoin and require, and We do hereby enjoin and require all Juſtices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Conſtables, and all other Our loving Subjects throughout Our Kingdom, to be in like Manner aiding and aſſiſting in bringing to Juſtice all Perſons diſtributing ſuch ſeditious and treaſonable Papers as aforeſaid.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Fourth Day of November, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Ninety-five, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 4th of November, 1795,

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS by His Majeſty's Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirteenth of March, 1793, an Embargo was laid on all Ships or Veſſels laden or to be laden in any of the Ports of Great Britain, with Salted Proviſions of any Kind whatſoever, and alſo upon all Ships and Veſſels laden or to be laden with Butter and Cheeſe, Peaſe, Beans, Rice, Hay, Straw, or Forage of any Kind whatſoever, and with Hides or Leather manufactured or unmanufactured; and it was ordered that the ſaid Embargo ſhould continue and remain upon all ſuch Ships and Veſſels until further Order; but it was by the ſaid Order declared to be His Majeſty's Pleaſure, that the ſaid Embargo ſhould not extend (amongſt other Things) to any Ships or Veſſels, being Britiſh Ships and Veſſels, navigated according to Law, which may be employed in carrying any of the ſaid Articles abovementioned to any Country in or out of Europe, in Amity with His Majeſty: And whereas His Majeſty judges it expedient to prohibit the carrying any ſuch Articles of Proviſion as aforeſaid to Countries in Amity with His Majeſty, it is hereby ordered, that notwithſtanding any Thing in the ſaid Order of the Thirteenth of March, 1793, contained to the contrary, the ſaid Embargo ſhall, from and after the Publication of this Order in the London Gazette, extend extend to all Ships and Veſſels whatſoever, laden or to be laden in any of the Ports of Great Britain with Salted Proviſions of any Kind whatſoever, or with Butter, Cheeſe, Hay, Straw or Forage of any Kind whatſoever, and which Ships or Veſſels ſhall be employed in carrying any of the Articles above-mentioned to any Country in or out of Europe, in Amity with His Majeſty. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, and the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, are are to give the neceſſary Directions herein as to them may reſpectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 4th of November, 1795,

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majeſty's Order in Council of the 6th of May laſt, prohibiting the tranſporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pot-Aſh or Pearl-Aſh (except as in the ſaid Order is mentioned) will expire upon the 7th Day of this inſtant November: And whereas it is judged expedient that the ſaid Prohibition ſhould be continued for ſome Time longer; His Majeſty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever do, at any Time, during the Space of Six Months from the 7th Day of this inſtant November, export, or attempt to export, tranſport, carry or convey, or lade or lay on Board of any Ship, Veſſel or Boat, in order to be exported, tranſported, carried or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any Pot-Aſh or Pearl-Aſh, without Leave or Permiſſion being firſt had and obtained from His Majeſty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act paſſed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Perſons "who have been concerned in adviſing or carrying "into Execution an Order of the Lords Commiſ-"ſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury reſpecting the "Exportation of Pot-Aſhes or Pearl-Aſhes; for "preventing Suits in conſequence of the ſame; "for authorizing His Majeſty to prohibit the Ex-"portation or carrying Coaſtwiſe of Pot-Aſhes or "Pearl Aſhes, and for making further Proviſions "relative thereto." But it is nevertheleſs His Majeſty's Pleaſure, that nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to prevent the Exportation of the ſaid Articles to Ireland, or to His Majeſty's Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the Weſt Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majeſty's Forts and Settlements on the Coaſt of Africa, or to the Iſland of St. Helena, or to the Britiſh Settlements or Factories in the Eaſt Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of the ſaid Articles to Ireland, or to His Majeſty's Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the Weſt Indies, or to the Iſland of Newfoundland, or to His Majeſty's Forts and Settlements on the Coaſt of Africa, or to the Iſland of St. Helena, or the Britiſh Settlements or Factories in the Eaſt Indies, the Exporters of the ſaid Articles do firſt make Oath of the true Deſtination of the ſame to the Places for which they ſhall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the ſame ſhall be made, and do give full and ſufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, to carry the ſaid Articles to the Places for which they are ſo entered Outwards, and none other; and ſuch Bond ſhall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, and ſpecified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in ſuch Form and Manner as ſhall be directed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, ſhewing that the ſaid Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell,

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 12th of November, 1795,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majeſty's Moſt Honorable Privy Council.

IT is this Day ordered by their Lordſhips, That his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury do prepare the Form of a Prayer and Thankſgiving to Almighty God for His late merciful Preſervation of the King's Majeſty from the daring Attempts againſt his Royal Perſon, as he paſſed to the Parliament Houſe, on Thurſday the Twenty-ninth Day of October laſt. Such Prayer to be uſed at Morning and Evening Service after the General Thankſgiving, in all Churches and Chapels in England and Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, on the firſt Sunday after the Miniſters of ſuch Churches and Chapels reſpectively ſhall receive the ſame, and to be continued for Fourteen Days afterwards.

And it is hereby further ordered, That His Majeſty's Printer do forthwith print a competent Number of Copies of the ſaid Form of Prayer and Thankſgiving, that the ſame may be forthwith ſent round, and read in the ſeveral Churches of England and Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed.

Steph. Cottrell.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, November 18.

The King was this Day pleaſed to conſer the Honor of Knighthood on Samuel Standidge, Eſq; Mayor of Kingſton upon Hull.

Whitehall, November 20.

The King has been pleaſed to appoint Sir James Bland Burges, Bart. and his Son Charles Montolieu Burges, Eſq; to the Office of Knight Marſhal of the Houſehold, and of the Marſhalſea of the Houſehold, of His Majeſty, and of the Houſehold of His Majeſty's Heirs and Succeſſors, ſucceſſively, during their natural Lives, in the room of Hugh Boſcawen, Eſq; deceaſed.

Crown-Office, November 21.

MEMBERS returned to ſerve in the preſent PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Eye.

The Right Hon. Charles Lord Viſcount Brome, in the room of Lieutenant-General Peter Bathurſt, who hath accepted the Office of Steward or Bailiff of His Majeſty's Three Chiltern Hundreds of Stoke, Deſborough and Bonenham, in the County of Buckingham.

Borough of St. Mawe's.

William Drummond, Eſq; of Charles-Street, Berkley-Square, in the City of Weſtminſter, in the room of Thomas Calvert, Eſq; who hath accepted the Office of Steward of His Majeſty's Manor of Eaſt Hendred, in the County of Berks.

Weſtminſter, November 21.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Edwin Sandys, of Kingſbridge in the County of Devon, to be a Maſter Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

St. James's, November 21.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's ever loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Preſident, Vice-Preſident, Treaſurer, Officers and Body of the Honorable Artillery Company of the City of London, in General Court aſſembled, humbly approach your Majeſty with the moſt profound Veneration and the moſt lively Sentiments of our ſteady and moſt reſpectful Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

We beg to expreſs our Indignation and Abhorrence of the late moſt atrocious and diabolical Outrages committed againſt the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty, in Defiance of all Law and Authority, and at a Time when your Majeſty was about to diſcharge one of the moſt important Functions of your exalted Station.

We are ſtruck with Horror at the Recollection of a Deed, which, but for the Interpoſition of Divine Providence, might have robbed the World of the brighteſt Example of every Royal and ſocial Virtue that can adorn a Throne, and have ſpread Horror and Diſmay throughout the Britiſh Empire.

With Hearts full of Gratitude to the Almighty for the gracious Preſervation of a Life ſo dear to our Country, we humbly tender our ſincere Congratulations upon this Act of his Divine Mercy extended to us and our Fellow Subjects.

As a Volunteer Corps exiſting from ancient Time, under the Authority of your Royal Predeceſſors, confirmed by your Majeſty's Royal Warrant, we truſt that we have ever been found ready, in Aid of the Civil Power, for the Preſervation of the Peace of the Metropolis, and in Defence of the Property of our Fellow Subjects: And we moſt humbly beg to tender to your Majeſty our moſt faithful Services in the Protection of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and of your illuſtrious Family; and that your Majeſty will be aſſured that we ſhall always continue to ſupport, at the Hazard of our Lives and with our Fortunes, the happy Conſtitution under which we live, through which we have enjoyed all the Bleſſings of ſocial Order and civil Liberty in a more compleat and extended Manner than has fallen to the Lot of any other Nation.

By Order of the Court,

William White, Secretary.

Armoury Houſe,

November 11, 1795.

[Preſented by Colonel Paul Le Meſurier, Lieutenant-Colonel William Dawſon, and Major Robert Ritherdon.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Surrey.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Surrey, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the moſt unfeigned Sentiments of Joy, on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the atrocious Attempt made on a Life ſo dear and ſo valuable to your faithful People.

Senſible of the Bleſſings we derive, not only from the Monarchy but the Monarch, and juſtly connecting the Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon with the Happineſs of your Subjects, and the Security of our Rights and Liberties, we are impelled by every Sentiment of Duty and Intereſt, (though on this Occaſion we feel the additional Impulſe of grateful Affection) to aſſure your Majeſty with what Abhorrence we view the daring and flagitious Outrage committed againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and how ſincerely we congratulate not only your Majeſty but ourſelves, that an Attempt ſo atrocious and dark has been attended with no other Effect than to call forth additional Proofs of the Attachment and Loyalty of your People.

May the ſame Almighty Power which has hitherto protected your Majeſty from the Furor of the Maniac and the Malignity of the Aſſaſſin, continue to fruſtrate thoſe Deſigns which, whilſt Atrocity meditates, no human Foreſight or Precaution can guard againſt; and we beg your Majeſty to believe, that conſcious as we are but one Sentiment of indignant Abhorrence pervades all Ranks of your Majeſty's Subjects on this Occaſion, none feel more warmly this Sentiment, none are more ſincerely attached to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, and from none will your Majeſty continue to receive more convincing Proofs of affectionate Attachment than from the loyal Inhabitants of the County of Surrey.

Signed at the Requeſt and in the Name of the County.

Thomas Turton, High Sheriff.

[Preſented by Thomas Turton, Eſq; High Sheriff of the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Berks, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the Expreſſion of our juſt Concern and Indignation at the daring and flagitious Outrages offered to your Majeſty, on your Paſſage to and from your Parliament at the Opening of the preſent Seſſion.

We have ſeen this Offence with Abhorrence, both from it's being directed againſt the Perſon of a Sovereign who juſtly reigns in the Hearts of all Ranks of his Subjects, and whoſe Virtues are more particularly known to us, who ſo long have been honoured by his Reſidence among us, and alſo from it's Tendency to interrupt the higheſt Functions, and to violate the moſt important Principles of that Conſtitution which Engliſhmen will always reverence as the Source and Safeguard of their Liberties; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we ſee, with the utmoſt Diſapprobation and Alarm, the Induſtry which is ſtill employed in the Diſſemination of thoſe Principles, which have a natural Tendency to produce theſe atrocious Crimes againſt your Majeſty's Perſon, and againſt the eſtabliſhed Government and Conſtitution of our Country.

Signed, at the unanimous Requeſt of the Meeting,

William Thoyts, Sheriff.

[Preſented by William Thoyts, Eſq; Sheriff, and Charles Dundas and George Vanſittart, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Hartford.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Hartford, impreſſed with the deepeſt Senſe of the Bleſſings we enjoy under our excellent Conſtitution, of which the Hereditary Monarchy, ſettled by Law in your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe, forms an eſſential Part, approach your Majeſty with our unfeigned Congratulations on your late providential Eſcape from an Attack on your Majeſty's Perſon of the moſt daring and flagitious Nature.

If a Crime of ſuch extenſive Miſchief, and of ſuch peculiar Malignity, could poſſibly admit of any Aggravation, we might preſume to obſerve, that, at a Moment ſo ſolemn as that when your Majeſty was proceeding to open your High Court of Parliament, it argued more than common Depravity in thoſe infatuated Miſcreants, who, ceaſing to conſider themſelves as Subjects, had caſt off the Feelings of Men, and ſcrupled not to attempt the Life of their Sovereign, engaged in the higheſt Functions of his Regal Office.

We ſpare ourſelves the Pain of reciting, and your Majeſty of recollecting the wicked Arts by which this Influence has been produced on weak Minds by deſigning and ambitious Men. The ſcandalous Miſrepreſentations which have been practiſed to ſeduce the Unwary, the criminal Hopes inſtilled into the Idle and Profligate, all aiming at one and the ſame Object, the Degradation and Extinction of Monarchy, and the Subverſion of our eſtabliſhed Conſtitution in Church and State.

Animated with theſe Sentiments, and partaking in that Joy which the late important Succeſſes of our Allies have diffuſed through all Ranks of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, we addreſs our fervent Prayers to the Diſpoſer of all human Events for a long Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign in Health, Proſperity and Glory, and with an ardent Hope for the Reſtoration of the Bleſſings of Peace, whenever the ſame can be ſecured to us on Terms conſiſtent with the Stability of your Majeſty's Throne, and the laſting Intereſts of your People.

Signed, by Order of the Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Hartford, held the 14th of November, 1795.

Thomas Harding, Sheriff.

[Preſented by Thomas Harding, Eſq; Sheriff, accompanied by Lord Viſcount Grimſton, William Plumer, Eſq; William Baker, Eſq; Sir Abraham Hume, Bart. and Auguſtus Pechell, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Southampton and it's Neigbourhood.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and ſubſcribing Inhabitants of the Town and County of Southampton and it's Neighbourhood, with Hearts grateful to the Almighty, whoſe providential Care hath preſerved your Majeſty from the Poniard of the mad Aſſaſſin and the brutal Violence of a licentious Rabble, deſire to preſent at the Foot of the Throne their Congratulations for your Safety, and to expreſs their Indignation againſt Miſcreants, who, in Defiance of the Laws of their Country, and in Violation of every ſocial Duty, have dared to lift their ſacrilegious Hands againſt the beſt of Kings, even when in the ſolemn Act of uniting with the Parliament to alleviate the Diſtreſſes of his People.

Unwilling to ſuppoſe that any but the moſt profligate and contemptible of your Majeſty's Subjects could engage in an Attempt which would caſt a Stain on the Britiſh Name, and ſink it beneath the loweſt of the ſavage Hordes, we, nēvertheleſs, hope and truſt that a ſpeedy, attentive and effectual Enquiry into all the Circumſtances of it will be made, and that the Puniſhment of a Crime, which levels all Diſtinctions, may fall on the Guilty, without Exception or Reſerve.

With theſe Sentiments, Sire, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, inviolably attached to your Royal Perſon and your illuſtrious Family, we ſhall be watchful to prevent, and reſolute to ſuppreſs, to the utmoſt of our Power, all ſeditious and traiterous Practices, and whatever may tend to obſtruct the conſtitutional Proceedings of Government, or to diſturb the public Peace.

[Preſented by Major-General d'Auvergne, Mayor, attended by James Amyatt and George Henry Roſe, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town.]

The Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and others, Inhabitants of the County of Suffolk, at a Meeting of the ſaid County aſſembled.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and others, Inhabitants of the County of Suffolk, impreſſed with Sentiments of the warmeſt and moſt affectionate Reſpect, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with the ſincereſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the horrid Atempt lately made on your ſacred Life, in going to and returning from meeting your Parliament, in Diſcharge of that high Duty which the glorious Conſtitution of this Country has ſo wiſely veſted in the Monarch of theſe Kingdoms.

With Horror we contemplate the daring and wicked Outrage againſt a Life, which the uniformly mild Tenor of your Majeſty's Reign has made dear to all your Subjects. It is graven on our Minds with the deepeſt Impreſſion. At the ſame Time our Breaſts are filled with Sentiments of the moſt profound Gratitude and Humiliation to the Almighty in having thus ſignally protected your Majeſty, and preſerved to your faithful People the Bleſſings they enjoy under your Majeſty's paternal Care and Anxiety to maintain to them that National Happineſs and Conſtitutional Freedom which they poſſeſs above all other Nations upon Earth.

We implore your Majeſty to promote ſuch Meaſures as will be moſt conducive to the Diſcovery of the Perpetrators of an Attempt ſo black and atrocious, and to bring them to exemplary Puniſhment, for the Sake of deterring the wicked and miſguided from a Repetition of ſimilar Outrages againſt your Royal Perſon and Dignity, rendered ſacred by our happy Form of Government, and, by your Majeſty's bright and amiable Virtues, invaluable to a brave, generous and free People.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,
Jacob Whitbread, High Sheriff.

Stowmarket, November 15, 1795.

[Preſented by Sir John Rous, Bart. and Sir Charles Bunbury, Bart. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble, loyal and congratulatory Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Freemen and Inhabitants of the City of Durham and it's Environs, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed, together with thoſe of the Officers of the Seventh Regiment of Light Dragoons and of the Loyal Durham Fencibles, now lying there.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

ACTUATED by the moſt unfeigned Loyalty and pureſt Attachment to the beſt of Kings and our moſt excellent Conſtitution, ſo firmly eſtabliſhed at the glorious Revolution, your Majeſty's antient, moſt loyal and reſpectable City of Durham and it's Environs, feel it their indiſpenſible Duty as well as Inclination, though totally unexpected upon ſuch an intereſting and awful Occaſion, once more to approach your Throne, and beg Leave, with the utmoſt Sincerity and Truth, to aſſure your Majeſty there are not in all your extenſive and potent Empire a People who hold in greater Deteſtation and Abhorrence the late moſt unmerited, atrocious and wicked Attempts upon your Royal Perſon, by a Set of diſcontented, factious Inflammatiſts, who wiſh the Subverſion of all Order and good Government therein, ſimilar to what has unfortunately happened in a great neighbouring Nation, where Anarchy, Diſtreſs and Ruin have long exiſted, and do ſtill unhappily continue to exiſt and pervade all Orders of Society, by Means of the worſt of all political Scourges, thoſe of Democratic Deſpotiſm, Tyranny, War and Bloodſhed, to the Diſgrace of Chriſtianity, and the Annoyance of all Europe and other Countries feeling their dreadful Effects.

Moſt happily for theſe Kingdoms, Thanks to Almighty God for his infinite Goodneſs, and thereunder to your Majeſty, by whoſe wiſe, vigilant and ſpirited Councils and Exertions they have internally eſcaped, in a ſupereminent Degree, ſuch direful Calamities; for we are fully confident it has been, and ever will be, your Majeſty's paternal Wiſhes to promote and maintain (as all Sovereigns ought) the Honour, Happineſs and Intereſts of the moſt magnanimous and affectionate People over whom any King ever reigned.

May then, moſt gracious Monarch, for the Honour of Chriſtianity as well as Humanity, your Royal and paternal Wiſhes (which are undoubtedly coincident with thoſe of the Empire at large and all the contending Powers at War) ſoon be moſt happily realized by the Concluſion of a ſafe, honourable and permanent Peace; more eſpecially at the preſent important Criſis, when the ſignal Succeſſes of your Majeſty's Arms by Sea, and the more recent and brilliant ones of your Auguſt and Imperial Ally by Land, muſt, in all human Probability, ſoon induce the French Nation to ſue to your Majeſty and your high Allies for it's immediate and happy Reſtoration, upon ſuch Terms as are worthy of great and generous Nations to grant.

contending

We do now moſt humbly and finally, in the moſt ſincere and pathetic Terms, congratulate your Majeſty, our moſt gracious, beloved and accomplished Queen, and all your Royal and Illuſtrious Houſe, and Country, upon your happy Eſcape from the ferocious and traiterous Attempts of ſuch deſperate and cowardly Aſſaſſins, devoutly ſupplicating the Omnipotent, that He would ever keep under his moſt holy Protection a Life ſo precious and dear to all your affectionate People; and that your Reign over them may be long, proſperous and happy, in univerſal and perpetual Peace, with all it's concomitant Bleſſings.

Signed by ſeveral Hundred Perſons, and deſired to be preſented to the Throne by Sir William Appleby, of Durham.

[Preſented by Sir William Appleby.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Wincheſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Wincheſter, ever deſirous to teſtify their ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, are particularly anxious in this Moment to appear among the foremoſt of your People in offering to your Majeſty their ſincere Congratulations on the providential Eſcape which your Majeſty has had from the malignant and wicked Attempts of certain deluded and deſperate Individuals, who, unmindful of their Allegiance to their Sovereign, and in Violation of the Laws, have dared to inſult and put in Danger your ſacred Perſon.

Your Majeſty's loyal Citizens are impreſſed with additional Horror and Deteſtation of thoſe unprovoked and unprecedented Acts of Violence, from the Conſideration that your Majeſty was actually engaged, at the Moment in which they were committed, in the truly Conſtitutional and Parental Act of conferring with your Parliament, in promoting the neareſt and deareſt Intereſts of your People, and that many of the Outrages committed againſt your Royal Perſon were repeated, after your Majeſty had expreſſed your Royal Wiſh of putting an End to the Burthens and Calamities of War, and of reſtoring to your People the Bleſſings of Peace, which your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to aſſure them you would uſe every Means to conclude, whenever it might be obtained conſiſtently with the Intereſts of your People, the Dignity of your Crown, and the good Faith due to the Powers with whom your Majeſty is in Alliance.

We are truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs in communicating to your loyal Subjects theſe your Majeſty's gracious Diſpoſitions; and we feel ourſelves called on in Return to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Perſon and Government, and that we will chearfully ſubmit to ſuch further Burthens as may be found neceſſary to effectuate with Succeſs your gracious Purpoſes.

Given under our Common Seal, in our Council Chamber, this 11th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by Sir Richard Gamon, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to offer unto your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and hearty Congratulations upon your Majeſty's late Deliverance from the Hands of a lawleſs and deſperate Banditti, who, actuated either by their own wicked and profligate Diſpoſitions, or which is more probable, by the Machinations of others more wicked than themſelves, made an Attempt upon your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, when too in the Exerciſe of one of the moſt eſſential Functions appertaining to your Regal Dignity.

Permit us, Sire, firmly attached as we are to your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Family and Government, to expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of ſo atrocious an Act, which, as it threatened Danger to your Majeſty, neceſſarily tended to involve your whole Kingdom in the deepeſt Sorrow and Affliction.

May the vile Abettors and Perpetrators of this daring Outrage be ſpeedily diſcovered and receive a Puniſhment adequate to a Crime of ſuch aggravated Enormity: And may the Almighty, who has hitherto with ſuch eſpecial Care protected your Majeſty, continue to watch over and guard your ſacred Perſon from every Foe, domeſtic as well as foreign: May He beſtow upon you his choiceſt Gifts, and long, very long preſerve you a Bleſſing to your People.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Council Chamber in Oxford, this 10th Day of November, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Preſented by Francis Burton and Arthur Anneſley, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs and Aldermen of the City of Norwich.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs and Aldermen of the City of Norwich, beg Leave to renew our Expreſſions of Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty, of Fidelity to the Throne, and of Veneration for the Conſtitution of our Country.

We congratulate you, Sire, on your late Eſcape from the Dangers to which you were expoſed by a daring and outrageous Inſult offered, through your Royal Perſon, to the ſupreme Authority of the State, in your Paſſage to the Houſe of Parliament; and we do aſſure your Majeſty, that we will at all Times uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to promote and ſupport that Reſpect and Obedience to the Laws, on which the Safety and Peace of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Happineſs of your People, moſt eſſentially depend.

We gratefully rely on your Majeſty's paternal Solicitude for your People's Welfare, and on the Wiſdom dom of the Legiſlature to adopt ſuch ſpeedy and ſalutary Meaſures as may tend to alleviate the Diſtreſſes of the Poor, to promote the Negotiation of an honourable Peace, and to conciliate National Proſperity with Conſtitutional Security.

Done at a full Court of Mayoralty, held at the Guildhall of the ſaid City, the 10th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, 1795.

By the Court,

De Hague.

[Preſented by the Hon. Henry Hobart and the Right Hon. William Windham, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of your Majeſty's antient and loyal City of Cheſter, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs our deepeſt Abhorrence of the Violence lately attempted towards your ſacred Perſon by the Hands of a brutal Multitude, miſguided and miſled (as we truſt and believe) by a few factious and wicked Men. It is Matter of ſome Conſolation to us, indeed, to reflect, that, through Divine Providence, the Injury reſulting from this flagitious Attack has been inflicted upon the Laws of this Land more than upon the Perſon of it's Chief Magiſtrate; and it is our earneſt Wiſh, that thoſe Laws may ſpeedily be enabled to vindicate themſelves on the Inſtigators and Inſtruments of this daring Outrage, by a juſt and aweful Retribution.

We beg Leave to offer our humble Thanks to your Majeſty for your gracious Proclamation againſt ſeditious and unlawful Aſſemblies of Men, who, under the ſpecious Pretences of Reform, ſecretly intend to ſubvert that Order and Subordination, in which conſiſt the Stability of Government and the Happineſs of Society.

May He, by whom Kings reign, grant to your Majeſty a long and proſperous Sway over a grateful, loyal and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, the 11th Day of November, 1795.

W. Harriſon, Mayor.

[Preſented by Lord Viſcount Belgrave and Lieutenant-Colonel Groſvenor, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, and the Recorder.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Tradeſmen and other Inhabitants of your antient City of Cheſter, do, with the moſt unfeigned Zeal, approach your Majeſty, to expreſs our deep Concern for the violent and daring Outrage lately committed, to the endangering of your Royal Perſon, when on your Paſſage to and from your Parliament. Be aſſured, Sire, we feel, in common with the reſt of your loyal Subjects, the utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of this Attack on the beſt of Sovereigns, whoſe mild and exemplary Reign has ever been directed to the Welfare and Happineſs of his People. It is our ſincere Hope and Wiſh that the atrocious Offenders who have, in your Majeſty's Perſon, ſo violently outraged the Laws and Conſtitution of their Country, may be ſoon diſcovered and brought to Juſtice. And it is our firm Opinion and Belief that the late horrid Deſign againſt your Majeſty originated in ſome of thoſe Seminaries of Sedition, the Political Debating Societies, which are of late become ſo alarmingly numerous; ſo we hope and truſt the Legiſlature of theſe Kingdoms will take into ſerious Conſideration, and adopt the moſt ſpeedy and effectual Means for the entire Suppreſſion of them, more eſpecially when ſo recent and flagitious an Inſtance of the pernicious Effects of the deteſtable Doctrines they promulgate were but too nearly being accompliſhed.

With the ſincereſt Wiſhes that your Majeſty, to a very late Period of Life, may continue your mild and paternal Government over a free and happy People, we are your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects.

[Preſented by Lord Viſcount Belgrave and Lieutenant-Colonel Groſvenor, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the moſt affectionate Sentiments of Veneration and Reſpect, humbly to expreſs to your Majeſty our Indignation and Abhorrence at the late daring Inſults offered to your Majeſty, when paſſing to and from your Parliament, at the Opening of the preſent Seſſion.

That any Perſons, living under the Protection of the Laws of this Country, and enjoying the Bleſſings which reſult from your Majeſty's mild and upright Government, could be capable of committing Outrages of ſo atrocious a Nature, tending to the immediate Danger of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to the utter Subverſion of all Order whatſoever, is a Matter of no leſs Aſtoniſhment to us than Regret; and we earneſtly hope, that the Meaſures which your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to take will be the Means of diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice and exemplary Puniſhment the Authors and Abettors of thoſe Crimes, ſo highly injurious to our excellent Conſtitution, and by which the Law and the public Peace have been ſo groſsly violated.

At the ſame Time we feel Comfort in the Reflection, that, notwithſtanding the wicked Deſigns of ſome evil-diſpoſed Perſons, your Majeſty is univerſally beloved and revered throughout your Dominions by your Subjects in general, who, from a due Senſe of your Majeſty's Virtues, ſet a juſt Value on their own Situation, and have at Heart the true Welfare and Happineſs of their Country.

Your Majeſty may at all Times rely on our Fidelity and Attachment.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the City of Exeter, on Tueſday the 10th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by Charles Fanſhawe, Recorder, and John Baring and James Buller, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, and alſo of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the ſame City.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, and alſo the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the ſame City, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne to expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the late unexampled and flagitious Outrage offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon in your Royal and Conſtitutional Capacity, on your Paſſage to and from the Two Houſes of Parliament, and to congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from ſuch an atrocious Attempt. Grateful for the manifold Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we ſhall be ever ready to uſe our utmoſt Exertions, and to riſque every Thing that is dear to Engliſhmen, in protecting your Majeſty from Inſult and Outrage, and in enforcing and carrying into Effect the Laws of the Realm, being fully convinced in ſo doing the Security and Happineſs of all your Majeſty's Subjects depend.

We are,
May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
With moſt inviolable Attachment,
Your Majeſty's moſt loyal, moſt dutiful, and moſt obedient Subjects.

J. Williamſon, Mayor.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Lord Eardley and John Wilmot, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worceſter, in Common-Council aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal City of Worceſter, entreat Permiſſion to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's moſt providential and truly fortunate Deliverance from the very imminent Danger with which your Majeſty was threatened, and to which your Royal Perſon was expoſed on the Day of the Opening of the preſent Meeting of Parliament,

On thus offering our Congratulations to your Majeſty, we conſider ourſelves at the ſame Time as congratulating our Countrymen, conceiving that the all-wiſe Providence could not have beſtowed a greater Bleſſing upon theſe Kingdoms than by fruſtrating the diabolical Plots and Machinations lately formed by a Set of Miſcreants who have nothing to loſe, and whoſe only Proſpect of emerging from their primitive abject Obſcurity ſeems to have been the Aſſaſſination of your Majeſty, and the illuſtrious Houſe of Brunſwick, and the Murder, Rapine, Depredation, and Plunder of the moſt worthy and valuable of your Majeſty's Subjects, and the total Subverſion of all Order and Government. We therefore moſt humbly hope and truſt that due Meaſures will be taken for bringing to condign Puniſhment the Authors and Perpetrators of this horrid Outrage, for the Suppreſſion of all ſeditious and unlawful Aſſemblies, and for the effectual Prevention of ſuch Attempts in future.

We pray to God that it may pleaſe Him ever to avert the traiterous Deſigns of, and to protect your Majeſty and the Conſtitution againſt, ſuch daring, wicked, and unprincipled Men; and to grant that your Majeſty may long live, and ſoon be enabled to conclude a Peace beneficial and honorable to your Majeſty's Crown and your loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council Chamber of the ſaid City, the 12th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by Edmond Wigley, Eſq; one of the Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Corporation and other Inhabitants of the City of Wells.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Corporation and other Inhabitants of the City of Wells, obſerve, with the utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence, the outrageous Attack on your Royal Perſon, and moſt heartily congratulate your Majeſty on your Eſcape from the Hands of ſuch daring Ruffians. We feel it as a freſh Inſtance of that providential Care which has hitherto preſerved your Majeſty's valuable Life, and we truſt will ſo continue to do for your Preſervation, and the Happineſs of your Subjects.

[Preſented by Clement Tudway, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and unanimous Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Aſſiſtants of the City of Rocheſter, in Common Council aſſembled,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Aſſiſtants of the City of Rocheſter, deſire to unite our Congratulations, with thoſe of our Countrymen in general, on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the alarming Inſults and nefarious Violence lately offered to your Royal Perſon.

While we declare our Readineſs to exert ourſelves in a vigorous Execution of the Laws, for the Diſcovery and Suppreſſion of all ſeditious and traitorous Attempts againſt your Majeſty's Perſon, or the Conſtitution of our Country, we truſt in your Majeſty's paternal Care to give a ſpeedy Effect to the benevolent Intention declared by your Majeſty, of uſing the Means neceſſary for the Reſtoration of Peace: An Event which, by leſſening the preſent Diſtreſſes of your People, and preventing the Accumulation of farther Burdens on them, will deprive the Diſaffected of their moſt powerful Means of ſpreading Diſcontent among your Subjects; over whoſe Hearts, as well as Perſons, it is our earneſt Prayer that your Reign may long and happily continue.

Given under our Common Seal this 11th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Preſented by Admiral Sir Richard King, Bart.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Precentor and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. David.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Precentor and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. David, deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the Bleſſings which this Nation enjoys through the Conſtitution of it's Government, and of the peculiar Happineſs of the preſent Generation in living under your Majeſty's paternal Guidance, beg Leave to expreſs our Abhorrence of the Indignities offered lately to your Majeſty in paſſing to exerciſe the Powers veſted in our Sovereign for opening the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, and of the treaſonable Attacks upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon on that Occaſion; and at the ſame Time to congratulate your Majeſty, and the Nation at large, on your Majeſty's Life being mercifully preſerved to us. This every loyal Subject muſt feel, and be ready to profeſs in the warmeſt Terms. But permit us, Sire, to add further a Declaration of our Hope, that whoever were concerned in ſo great an Outrage will be diſcovered, and brought to ſuch legal Puniſhment as ſhall be a Warning to others againſt being miſled into a ſimilar Crime; expreſſing our Satisfaction that your Majeſty's Houſes of Parliament are in their Wiſdom framing ſuch Ordinances for the Suppreſſion of ſeditious Aſſemblies as we hope may repreſs that Spirit of Innovation which has gone forth of late, and threatens the Well-Being of the Community. And we aſſure your Majeſty that we will individually, as well as in our corporate Capacity, inculcate the Wiſdom as well as the Duty of Submiſſion to Government for the Protection of a free People againſt the Lawleſs and Diſobedient; and that we ourſelves will be ready upon every Occaſion to afford to your Majeſty, and to the Conſtitution already eſtabliſhed in theſe your Majeſty's Dominions, whatever Support it may be in our Power to give.

Signed, in the Name and with the hearty Concurrence of each Member of the Chapter, by

Francis Woollaſton, Precentor,

November 16, 1795.

[Preſented by the Rev. Francis Wollaſton, Precentor.]

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Town or Borough of Kingſton upon Hull.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

DEEPLY impreſſed with Gratitude for the invaluable Bleſſings we have ſo long enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, we, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingſton upon Hull, cannot forbear to expreſs our Grief and Indignation at the late daring and ſeditious Attack on your Majeſty, in that Exerciſe of your Royal Function which forms ſo eſſential a Part of our happy Conſtitution.

Permit us, however, Sire, to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from the Violence and Outrage of a miſguided Populace.

Anxious as we muſt feel for your Majeſty's Safety, on which the Welfare of your People ſo much depends, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will ever uſe our moſt ſtrenuous Endeavours to ſupport and defend your Perſon and Government; and that it is our moſt fervent Prayer, that your Majeſty may long continue to be the Object of the Divine Favour and Protection.

Given under our Common Seal, the 10th Day of November, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

S. Standidge, Mayor.

[Preſented by Samuel Standidge, Eſq; Mayor, accompanied by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, High Steward, and the Earl of Burford and Samuel Thornton, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Guild or Brotherhood of the Trinity Houſe of Kingſton upon Hull.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Wardens, Elder Brethren and Aſſiſtants of the Trinity Houſe of Kingſton upon Hull, ever amongſt the moſt forward of your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects in teſtifying their Zeal and Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, beg Leave moſt reſpectfully to approach the Throne with Hearts truly affected with the daring Inſult and Outrage that has been very lately committed againſt your Majeſty.

And whilſt this Corporation expreſs their juſt Indignation at ſuch atrocious and wicked Attempts, they preſume to aſſure your Majeſty that their utmoſt Efforts ſhall at all Times be employed in repelling, as far as in their Power, that Diſpoſition towards Riot and Diſorder that has of late ſhewn itſelf, and in cultivating and confirming in the Minds of others Principles of Reſpect and Veneration for the King, and preſent happy Conſtitution.

May the ſame Almighty Providence, that hath at this Time ſhielded your Majeſty, long continue to protect and guard your Royal Perſon againſt every ſecret Conſpiracy, as well as open Violence, that the invaluable Bleſſings of your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government may be tranſmitted down to the lateſt Ages.

Given under our Common Seal the 9th Day of November, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

Samuel Standidge, John Harneis, Wardens.

[Preſented by Samuel Standidge, Eſq; Mayor, accompanied by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, High Steward, and the Earl of B. ford and Samuel Thornton, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Town of Kingſton upon Hull.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Towns and Neighbourhood of Mancheſter and Salford, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty with Aſſurances of our moſt lively Indignation and Abhorrence at the late daring and atrocious Outrage offered to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon. An Attempt in it's own Nature ſo diabolical, and by your Majeſty ſo undeſerved, could proceed only from Hearts dead to the Feelings of Humanity and Gratitude: And we lament that, in the Number of Britiſh Subjects, there ſhould one be found ſo forgetful of his Country and his King, as wantonly to put to Hazard the Tranquillity and Safety of them both.

We

We reſpectfully preſume to offer to your Majeſty our moſt heartfelt Congratulations on the Failure of ſo horrid a Deſign; moſt fervently imploring that Almighty Power, who has ſo ſignally marked out your Majeſty as his peculiar Care, that He would ever, in like Manner, fruſtrate the traiterous Purpoſes, and defeat the malignant Efforts of factious Men, the declared Enemies of all good Government and diſtinguiſhed Virtue.

May God long preſerve your Majeſty's moſt precious Life, a Bleſſing to your Kingdoms, and a Pledge of the Continuance of that gracious Protection He has hitherto vouchſafed to them.

We cannot cloſe an Addreſs from the Hearts of affectionate People, without one ſolemn Declaration, that, as it is impoſſible for us to look with Indifference on an Attempt againſt the perſonal Safety of our Sovereign, ſo ſhall we, on every Occaſion that may call for Exertion, be ready to ſtand forth in the Defence of inſulted Laws and violated Majeſty.

[Preſented by Colonel Stanley and John Blackburne, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Lancaſter.]

The humble and congratulatory Addreſs of the loyal Inhabitants of the Towns of Portſmouth and Portſea, and their Neighbourhood.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Towns of Portſmouth, Portſea, and their Neighbourhood, beg Leave moſt ſincerely to congratulate your Majeſty on your late providential Eſcape from the Hands of Aſſaſſins.

Whilſt we regard with Horror and Deteſtation Principles that could ſtimulate to ſuch an atrocious Attempt, with grateful Hearts we offer up our Praiſes and Thanſgivings to the Almighty for your Majeſty's happy Deliverance from it.

Aſſuring your Majeſty of our moſt faithful and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and to your Royal and Illuſtrious Houſe, we join in the moſt fervent Wiſhes that your Majeſty may reign long and happily over an united, free, and loyal People.

[Preſented by Sir William Heathcote, Bart. and William Chute, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Hants.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the warmeſt Aſſurances of our zealous Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, and to t litical Conſtitution of our Country.

We have a deep and afflicting Senſe of the Inſult which was offered to your Majeſty by a rude and miſguided Mob on the Day in which you met your Parliament. We truſt that this daring Outrage againſt the Royal Majeſty, which forms an eſſential and inviolable Part of our happy Conſtitution, has excited in your People a general Sentiment of Indignation and Abhorrence, and that it will be ſtigmatized as it deſerves by the public Voice from every Quarter of the Kingdom.

Impreſſed as we are with a grateful Senſe of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, and with a Confidence in thoſe Virtues of your Royal Character, which are ſure Pledges of your Majeſty's Attention to the Happineſs of your People, we offer to your Majeſty our heartfelt Congratulations on your Safety, for which we truſt the Parliament of this Kingdom will effectually provide, by ſuch additional Fences as the Times may be thought to require, and the Conſtitution of our Country admit.

[Preſented by Sir Alan Gardner, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council and Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone in the County of Kent.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council and Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone, in the County of Kent, requeſt Permiſſion to approach your Throne, and to expreſs in the ſtrongeſt Terms our Abhorrence of the daring Outrages offered to your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and in that Perſon to the excellent Laws and happy Conſtitution of our Country, in your Paſſage to and from your Parliament on the Firſt Day of the preſent Seſſion; and alſo the continued Attempts of wicked and evil-diſpoſed Perſons to diſturb the Tranquillity of this your Majeſty's Kingdom, particularly by the Multitude of ſeditious Pamphlets and Speeches, daily printed, publiſhed, and diſperſed with unremitting Induſtry, and with a deteſtable Audacity, in Contempt of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Dignity, and tending to the Overthrow of the Laws, Government and happy Conſtitution of theſe Realms; and to expreſs with the moſt lively Joy our grateful Thanks to God for preſerving your Majeſty from perſonal Injury.

We do moſt fervently wiſh your Majeſty (under whoſe gracious Government we have ſo long enjoyed our Liberties and Privileges inviolate) may have the Happineſs long to reign in Peace and Safety, over a free, grateful and happy People; and that your Majeſty will accept our moſt ſolemn Aſſurances, that we will, at all Times, moſt zealouſly ſupport your Majeſty, your Crown, and Family, againſt all your Enemies.

Signed at the Requeſt and on Behalf of the Meeting. Tho. Poole, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leiceſter, in Common Hall aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leiceſter, beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our Abhorrence of the Outrages offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon when going to and returning from your Parliament, and to aſſure your Majeſty ſty of our unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government. We truſt that the Authors of Outrages ſo diſgraceful to the Character of Men and Britons will be made to feel the utmoſt Severity of the offended Laws; and we pray the Almighty God that He will long preſerve your Majeſty's Life in a happy and proſperous Reign over a grateful and free People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Loyal Leiceſter Corps of Volunteer Infantry.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Loyal Leiceſter Corps of Volunteer Infantry, beg Leave humbly to expreſs our Grief and Indignation at the late violent and daring Outrage againſt your Majeſty's Perſon. As Britons, we cannot reflect without Horror, that any Set of Men ſhould be ſo abandoned, and ſo inſenſible of the Value of thoſe Privileges which your Majeſty's People enjoy under your Majeſty's benign Government, as to be capable of attempting ſo groſs and wicked an Act. Knowing your Majeſty to be an important Part of that Conſtitution for which our Anceſtors bled, for the Preſervation of which we are now in Arms, and for the Defence of which we are ready to ſacrifice our Lives, we conſider every Attempt upon your Majeſty's Perſon as an Endeavour to deſtroy that Government. We do, therefore, with the moſt heartfelt Satisfaction, congratulate your Majeſty upon the late happy Eſcape from perſonal Injury, vouchſafed to your Majeſty through the gracious Protection of Divine Providence, and do aſſure your Majeſty it is the moſt earneſt Wiſh of your faithful People, that the Authors and Abettors of ſuch flagitious Attempts may ſpeedily be diſcovered and brought to Juſtice.

Signed, this 9th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795, in the Name of the Corps.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Lord Rancliffe and Samuel Smith, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Town of Leiceſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Haſting.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Haſting, beg Leave to expreſs our Concern and Indignation at the daring Inſult which has been offered to your Royal Perſon at the Opening of Parliament by a Band of deluded and furious Inſurgents.

In contemplating this atrocious Act we cannot but conſider it as the dreadful Effect of inflammatory Publications and ſeditious Aſſemblies, which have a direct Tendency to deſtroy at once all the relative Advantages of Protection and Obedience.

We rejoice to hear that the vigilant Spirit of the Legiſlature has taken the moſt effectual Means to correct and reſtrain theſe diſgraceful Exceſſes; the inſeparable Companions of the Phrenſy of Liberty, and the Licentiouſneſs of Innovation.

For ourſelves, we will unceaſingly impreſs on the Minds of our Fellow-Subjects the dangerous Conſequences of Tumult and Rebellion; and we think it our Duty to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ready to ſacrifice our Property and our Lives in Support of the Conſtitution, and in Defedce of a Monarch, who has conſtantly ſhewn a paternal Solicitude for the Happineſs and Proſperity of his People.

Given under our Common Seal, the 14th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by —— Milward, Eſq; Mayor, accompanied by John Stanley, Eſq; and Robert Dundas, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town and Port.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Yeomanry Cavalry Volunteers of the Rape of Haſtings, cannot refrain from expreſſing our Indignation and Concern at the Violence lately offered to your Majeſty's ſalred Perſon, and our Abhorrence of the Principle by which it was inſtigated.

We moſt humbly congratulate your Majeſty, and are thankful to the Almighty for the Preſervation of a Life on which the Safety and Happineſs of theſe Realms, and, in the preſent arduous Criſis, the Welfare of Europe, ſo materially depend.

Believing that the moſt vigorous Exertions in the preſent juſt and neceſſary War, commenced againſt us by our ancient and inveterate Enemies, will moſt effectually reduce them to a Neceſſity for, and a Deſire of, a ſpeedy Peace, to obtain which for your Kingdoms, in a ſafe, honorable and permanent Manner, is the paternal Wiſh of your Majeſty; and as we know no more effectual Means of giving full Scope to the Courage and Efforts of your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies Abroad than by promoting Concord and Obedience to the Laws at Home, we will do all in our Power, both in our Civil and Military Capacities, to forward ſo deſirable an End; and in particular, by watching over and repreſſing all tumultuous and illegal Aſſemblies or Convocations, projected by the Enemies of our moſt excellent Conſtitution, and who, on whatever Pretexts they may act, are either concealedly or avowedly the Foes of Law and Liberty well underſtood.

We, with all good Subjects, hope that your Majeſty may long, very long, continue to reign over a free, happy, loyal and united People.

Dated at Battle the 12th of November, 1795.

At the unanimous Requeſt of the Corps, Captain Biſhop is deſired to ſign, and Sir Godfrey Vaſſall Webſter, Baronet, to preſent, the above humble Addreſs to His Majeſty.

James Biſhop, Captain-Commandant.

[Preſented by Sir Godfrey Vaſſall Webſter, Bart.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Newbury, with Hearts full of Thankfulneſs to the Supreme Being for his providential Protection of your Royal Perſon from the late daring Outrage of a miſguided Multitude, in paſſing to and from your Houſe of Parliament, approach your Majeſty to expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of all ſuch tumultuous Proceedings, and of all the Machinations that have produced them.

That your Royal Perſon may be protected from all future Dangers, and your People ſecured a Continuance of thoſe Comforts they have long been accuſtomed to enjoy under your Majeſty's Reign, is the earneſt Prayer of the Corporation and Inhabitants of this ancient Borough.

Signed by the unanimous Order of the Meeting,
Sam. Grigg, Mayor.

[Preſented by George Vanſittart, Eſq; and Charles Dundas, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Berks.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt affectionate and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaſter, humbly beg Leave to lay at the Foot of your Throne our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential and happy Deliverance from the late audacious and treaſonous Attack aimed with deliberate Malignity againſt your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and our happy Conſtitution.

Our Hearts ſhrink with Horror from thoſe wicked and atrocious Principles, hatched by the Zealots of Confuſion, to ſubvert the Peace of Society and all good Government; and we think it high Time for the Authority of Laws to interpoſe in preventing their dangerous Aſſociations. And we do moſt ſolemnly pledge ourſelves to your Majeſty, both individually and in our corporate Capacity, to diſcourage and ſuppreſs as much as in us lies the Propagation of all levelling and ſeditious Doctrines.

May the great Diſpoſer of all Events and Ruler of the Univerſe turn the Hearts of your diſobedient but deluded Subjects, or fruſtrate and confound their evil Devices, and thereby long preſerve to a grateful and happy Nation the beſt of Kings placed at the Head of the beſt of Governments.

Given under the Seal of the Borough of Lancaſter, this 10th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Preſented by J. F. Cawthorne, Eſq; Recorder.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Inhabitants of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of Great Yarmouth, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our ſincereſt Congratulations upon your late providential Eſcape from one of the moſt daring Attempts of Wickedneſs and Profligacy that ever diſgraced the Annals of this Country. Attempts of ſo atrocious a Nature cannot fail at all Time to excite Indignation and Horror in the Minds of every loyal Subject, and of every good Man, but eſpecially now, when the malevolent Aim both of our foreign and domeſtic Foes is to break aſunder every ſocial Obligation, and to introduce Confuſion and Terror throughout your Majeſty's Dominions.

In the full Enjoyment of the Bleſſings which our admirable Conſtitution ſecures to us, we cannot but lament, that Principles ſubverſive of good Order and Government ſhould be induſtriouſly propagated by the Diſaffected in this Kingdom; and we humbly beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our moſt earneſt Wiſhes for the immediate Adoption of ſuch Meaſures as Parliament in its Wiſdom may think effectual to ſuppreſs thoſe turbulent and ſeditious Meetings, which tend only to miſlead and to inflame the lower Orders of the People.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Charles Townſhend, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the antient Borough of Newcaſtle under Lyme.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the antient Borough of Newcaſtle under Lyme, beg Leave to lay before your Majeſty our warmeſt Congratulations upon your late Eſcape from the daring and wicked Attack made upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

With ſo awful an Example of the Miſeries of Anarchy before our Eyes, we contemplate, with encreaſing Satisfaction, the Excellence of our Civil Conſtitution; and proportionably anxious that it may be preſerved, we cannot but regard the Violation of the Regal Dignity, in the Inſults and Violence offered to your Majeſty, as ultimately aiming at the Deſtruction of every conſtituent Branch of the Britiſh Government. Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, permit us to expreſs our Abhorrence of the Principles and Conduct of thoſe who, under any Pretext of any conſequent private or political Advantage, could deviſe or attempt an Act, combining, in the full Meaſure of it's Atrocity, the Violation of the moſt ſacred Rights of Nature with the Deſtruction of all the Bleſſings of ſocial Order.

That the Almighty Governor of the Univerſe may continue to your Majeſty his protecting Care, during a long and happy Reign, is the ſincere and ardent Prayer of your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects.

[Preſented by William Egerton, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Saint Alban's, cannot hear without the higheſt Indignation that the[re] ſhould ſhould be found Men ſo totally forgetful of their Reſpect and Duty to their King, and ſo negligent of their Fellow Subjects Happineſs, as to have dared to offer Inſult to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon on the Way to and from your Parliament on the Twenty-ninth Day of October laſt, and to have arrived at ſuch a Height of Wickedneſs and Depravity as to have ſought the Life of the Sovereign, who makes ſo eſſential a Part of that Conſtitution under which we have experienced every Comfort which true Liberty can give.

We moſt ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty on your late Eſcape from ſuch flagitious Conduct; and deprecating, as we moſt ſincerely do, any Renewal of it, we do aſſure your Majeſty that we ſhall at all Times be ready to oppoſe to the utmoſt of our Power any Attack upon your ſacred Perſon, or Reſiſtance to your lawful Authority, on which we confidently rely for our own Security and the public Peace and Proſperity of theſe Realms. Impreſſed with ſuch Feelings, we return your Majeſty our moſt unfeigned Thanks for the Attention your Majeſty has lately ſhewn to the domeſtic Peace and Welfare of theſe Kingdoms in the Proclamation you have iſſued, by the Advice of your Privy Council, againſt ſeditious and unlawful Aſſemblies. Regarding your Majeſty's Safety as intimately connected with our own Security and Happineſs, we humbly beſeech your Majeſty to uſe ſuch Precaution for the Preſervation of your Royal Perſon againſt the wicked Purpoſes of evil-diſpoſed Men as may render vain their Attempts, and perpetuate to your People the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Reign.

Thomas Baker, M. D. Mayor, &c. &c.

[Preſented by John Calvert, jun. Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Magiſtrates, Approved Men and other Inhabitants of your ancient Town and Borough of Guildford, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our ſincereſt and moſt heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape from an Attack, the Criminality and Atrocity of which, were, if poſſible, aggravated by the Time at which it was made.

Upon ſuch an Occaſion we humbly hope it will not be deemed an Intruſion in us to reiterate the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our unalterable Determination to defend and maintain, to the utmoſt of our Power, your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government againſt both Foreign and Domeſtic Enemies.

[Preſented by the Right Honorable Lord Grantley, Recorder, and the Right Honorable Lord Onſlow.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Officers and Privates of the Volunteer Company of the ancient and loyal Town of Guildford.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, Officers and Privates of the ſaid Corps, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, to expreſs our Horror and Indignation at the moſt daring Aſſault and Outrage offered to your Majeſty, in your Paſſage to and from your Parliament; and to declare our Readineſs to ſacrifice our Lives in Defence of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government againſt both foreign and domeſtic Enemies.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Lord Onſlow and the Right Hon. Lord Grantley.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, Gentry, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Scarbrough, in the County of York.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates, Gentry, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town nnd Neighbourhood of Scarbrough, in the County of York, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence of thoſe tumultuous Outrages which have lately endangered your ſacred Perſon, and to give your Majeſty the fulleſt Aſſurance that we will, in our ſeveral Stations, uſe every Exertion to defend your Majeſty againſt the Inſults of daring and lawleſs Men, whoſe Aim is to overthrow our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, and to introduce into this Kingdom Anarchy and Confuſion.

We cannot but regard the late nefarious Attack upon your Majeſty as having been concerted in thoſe unconſtitutional and illegal Aſſemblies which have been lately held in Defiance of Decency and Order; to prevent ſimilar Meetings in future, we moſt earneſtly intreat, that ſuch effectual Meaſures may be adopted as your Majeſty, aſſiſted by the Wiſdom of Parliament, ſhall deem expedient.

At the ſame Time that we offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the wicked Deſigns of abandoned and deſperate Men, we cannot but expreſs our firm Belief, that the late inſidious Attempt againſt your Majeſty, inſtead of tending to inſpirit and embolden our Enemies, will, from the Deteſtation in which it is held by all Ranks of your faithful Subjects, convince the World that your Majeſty lives enthroned in the Hearts and Affections of a free and loyal People.

Signed the 5th Day of November, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Preſented by the Earl of Tyrconnel and the Hon. Lieutenant-Colonel Phipps, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Sandwich, humbly approach the Throne with our ſincereſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the daring Aſſaults of an abandoned Faction, at the Time when your Majeſty was engrged in diſcharging the great and important Functions of the ſupreme Power of the Legiſlative Authority of this Kingdom.

Conſidering thoſe outrageous and traiterous Proceedings as Indications of a fixed Determination to ſubvert our glorious Conſtitution, and to ſubſtitute a moſt horrid Syſtem of Anarchy and Confuſion, we are impelled, both by Duty and Inclination, thus early to expreſs our utter Deteſtation of ſuch deſtructive Principles, and to declare our firm Reſolution to defend your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government vernment with our Lives and Fortunes againſt all your Majeſty's Enemies, foreign and domeſtic.

May that Great Being, who has hitherto ſo ſignally interpoſed in the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life, a Life of the moſt ineſtimable Value to the Welfare and Happineſs of theſe Countries, continue to your Majeſty his moſt gracious Protection; and grant, that the Crown may long flouriſh upon your Majeſty's Head, and, attended by the Bleſſings of the mild and liberal Government we now enjoy, may deſcend to your Majeſty's illuſtrious Line to the lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in Sandwich aforeſaid, the 11th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by Sir Philip Stephens, Bart. and Sir Horace Mann, Bart. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town and Port.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes a d other Inhabitants of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, impelled by unfeigned Attachment to your Royal Perſon, and the moſt lively Abhorrence of a late Attempt againſt it, beg Leave to preſent our humble Congratulations on your happy Eſcape; and we pray that the ſame Divine Protection may long preſerve your Majeſty to bear the Sceptre of theſe Realms in Peace and Security.

[Preſented by Andrew Steward, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the Corporation of Huntingdon, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the late daring Outrage and flagitious Attack againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, committed by a deſperate and lawleſs Rabble in your Paſſage to and from the Houſe of Parliament.

Deeply ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we have long enjoyed under the mild, beneficent and paternal Reign of your Majeſty, we did not think there could exiſt in your Kingdoms any Man ſo loſt to all Senſe of Duty and Allegiance to the beſt of Princes, as to raiſe his parricidal Hand againſt your Royal Life. Every Engliſhman naturally abhors the Idea of Aſſaſſination; therefore the horrid Accounts of ſo nefarious an Attack ſtruck us with Indignation and Aſtoniſhment.

We do moſt ſincerely hope and truſt, that the ſeditious Actors and Abettors of theſe deſperate Outrages will be brought to ſpeedy and condign Puniſhment: Infatuated and deluded Men, who appear to aim at plunging their Country into all the Horors of Anarchy and Confuſion, which now deſolate a neighbouring Nation.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from imminent Danger, and take this Opportunity of expreſſing our Hopes, that the Wiſdom of Parliament will frame ſuch Laws as may be adequate to check ſeditious Aſſemblies, and to prevent in future ſuch atrocious Offences.

It is our moſt ſincere and fervent Prayer, that it may pleaſe the Divine Giver of all Good to grant your Majeſty long to reign over a free, united and happy People.

Given under the Common Seal of our Corporation, the 16th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Rob. Godby, Mayor.

[Preſented by the Earl of Sandwich, Recorder.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Wolverhampton, deeply impreſſed with Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, and animated by the warmeſt Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your Safety and Preſervation, and to expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the daring Outrage lately offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, in your Paſſage to and from Parliament.

Perſuaded that the ſacred Principles of the Conſtitution have been ever the Rule of your Majeſty's Conduct, and that the Happineſs and Proſperity of your People have been the firſt Wiſh of your Heart, we reflect, with Horror and Indignation, that there ſhould be found a Subject in your Majeſty's Dominions capable of Actions of ſo atrocious and flagitious a Nature.

Anxious for the Safety of a beloved Sovereign and the Happineſs of our Fellow Subjects, and reflecting upon the Conſequences that muſt have reſulted from the Accompliſhment of the intended Purpoſe, we are thankful to the Almighty for your Majeſty's Deliverance from ſo imminent a Danger, and implore the Continuance of the ſame gracious Providence in the Protection and Preſervation of a Life invaluable to your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, and endeared to them by every Proof of paternal Attention and Regard that can conciliate the Affections of a grateful and loyal People.

[Preſented by Earl Gower.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Pariſhioners and Inhabitants at large of the Pariſh and Borough of New Windſor, in the County of Berks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Pariſhioners and Inhabitants at large of the Pariſh and Borough of New Windſor aforeſaid, with all Submiſſion, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your late happy Eſcape from the moſt atrocious and outrageous Attack made on your ſacred Perſon by a lawleſs Set of unprincipled and deluded Men, in the Exerciſe of one of the moſt important of your Royal Functions, that of meeting your Parliament.

That the Almighty Diſpoſer of all Good may bleſs and proſper your Councils, give you Victory over your Enemies, reſtore Peace and Tranquility to your Kingdoms, eſtabliſh your Throne on the firmeſt Baſis, and perpetuate to lateſt Poſterity our preſent Bleſſings in your Royal Line, is and ever will be the ardent and conſtant Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[Preſented by William Grant, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Ipſwich, in Great Court aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of your Majeſty's antient and loyal Borough of Ipſwich, impreſſed no leſs with Sentiments of Reſpect and Affection for your Majeſty than of Veneration for our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, beg Leave to preſent at the Foot of your Throne their ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Deliverance from the late horrid Outrages on your ſacred Perſon.

They have contemplated with real Concern the Publication of Principles diſloyal and ſeditious by a factious Few, tending to degrade the Engliſh Character, followed by Practices diſgraceful to the Engliſh Name.

They therefore pledge themſelves, in their reſpective Capacities, to every legal Exertion againſt ſuch Offences and Offenders.

Permit them alſo to expreſs their earneſt Wiſhes, that, under the Protection of that Divine Power by whom King's reign, your faithful Subjects may long continue to enjoy the Bleſſings which they derive from your Majeſty's moſt gracious Government and illuſtrious Example.

Given under our Common Seal, the 13th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by Charles Alexander Crickitt, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick.

SIRE!

BEING fully perſuaded that if ever the Public Declaration of our Sentiments becomes more peculiarly our Duty, it muſt be at a Time when a deſperate Faction has dared to inſult a Sovereign, whoſe Virtues ſo juſtly entitle him to the Eſteem and Attachment of a loyal People, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we feel a Degree of Indignation, which we want Words to expreſs, at the late moſt audacious and horrid Attempts made againſt your Majeſty's Perſon; and we pledge ourſelves, in the moſt ſacred Mnaner, to our Country, that no perſonal Riſk or Danger ſhall deter us from exerting every Power we poſſeſs in the Defence of the ineſtimable Conſtitution which we enjoy, and for the Safety and Protection of a Sovereign whom we ſo highly venerate.

And we truſt, that notwithſtanding the wicked and malicious Efforts of ſome deluded Wretches, who, regardleſs of the Bleſſings they poſſeſs under a Government which ſo amply affords Protection to every Britiſh Subject, that there exiſts Loyalty and Virtue in our Country ſufficient to enſure to diſtant Ages the Inheritance of our preſent moſt excellent Conſtitution, to which alone we owe the Enjoyment of our Property, our Liberty, and our Religion: And as we cannot but reflect with the moſt heartfelt Gratitude on the conſtant parental Care which your Majeſty has evinced for the general Welfare and Proſperity of your People, we eſteem it to be our bounden Duty to offer up our fervent Paayers to the Almighty Diſpoſer of all Events for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life, now rendered. if poſſible, more dear to every true Friend of his Country from the Danger to which it has been expoſed.

Signed at the unanimous Requeſt of the Inhabitants of the ſaid Borough, aſſembled for the Purpoſe of addreſſing your Majeſty, by

Cha. Gregory Wade, Mayor, Chairman.
WARWICK, Recorder.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Lord Arden and the Right Hon. George Villiers, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The dutiful and loyal Addreſs of your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Preſton, in the County of Lancaſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

VIEWING, with Horror and Indignation, the late daring and atrocious Attack on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, we, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Preſton, in the County of Lancaſter, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's Eſcape from as abominable an Outrage as the vileſt, moſt unprincipled, and deluded of your Majeſty's Subjects could ever entertain an Idea of.

Permit us, Sire, after expreſſing our Gratitude to the Almighty Diſpoſer of all Events for the Protection of your Majeſty from ſo imminent a Danger, to add our moſt fervent Prayers for your Majeſty's future Preſervation, and to join our moſt cordial Wiſhes, in common with all well-diſpoſed Subjects, that the Authors of this wicked Attempt may be diſcovered and brought to that condign Puniſhment which ſuch traiterous Conduct merits.

On our Parts, we ſolemnly pledge ourſelves to uſe our utmoſt Endeavours in maintaining due Order and Subordination to your Majeſty's Government, and on every Occaſion to contribute our Aſſiſtance in Support thereof, and of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough this 9th Day of November, 1795.

J. Walſhman, Mayor, in open Council.

[Preſented by James Allan Park, Eſq; Recorder, and John Blackburne, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Lancaſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Bargeſſes and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Northampton, impreſſed with the higheſt Reverence and Regard for the Laws and Conſtitution of our Country, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with unfeigned Aſſurances of Affection and Loyalty to your Perſon and Government, and to expreſs the Abhorrence we feel, in common with every true Britiſh Subject, at the daring Outrages committed againſt your Majeſty's jeſty's Perſon, in going to and returning from your Parliament.

Impoſſible as it was for us to conceive that ſuch abandoned Characters exiſted as to forget their Allegiance, and lift their Hand againſt their Sovereign, yet as Wretches of this Deſcription are evidently in Being, we look up with Confidence to the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature in providing againſt the Cauſe which we conceive has produced ſuch daring Atrocities, and which we cannot but conſider to have been promoted by artful and deſigning Men, who, inimical to all Government, have aſſembled your Majeſty's Subjects in or near your Metropolis, and, by ſeditious and inflammatory Diſcourſes, endeavoured to excite and prepare them to a Reſiſtance of the Laws and Government of the Kingdom. And it is with the greateſt Concern we feel it our Duty to obſerve, that until the Period arrives when ſuch Meetings and the Promulgation of ſuch pernicious Doctrines and Principles can be prevented, we have little Security for that Safety, Honor and Happineſs which we pray may ever attend your Royal Perſon, and to promote which will ever be the uniform Wiſh and Study of our Lives.

We are, Sire, with the moſt perfect Attachment and Loyalty, your dutiful, faithful, and obedient Subjects.

[Preſented by the Hon. Spencer Perceval, Deputy Recorder, and Thomas Hall, Eſq; Mayor.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough and Town of Marlborough, humbly beg Permiſſion to approach your auguſt Perſon, in the unanimous Deſire of teſtifying our utter Deteſtation and Abhorrence of that Treaſon, which, ſtimulated by its Hatred of the Duties of Allegiance, has dared to oppoſe the moſt inſulting Violence to your Majeſty, and deeply to wound the Honour of the Nation at large. We feel the honeſt Bluſh of Shame and Indignation for this nefarious Outrage, and moſt devoutly thank Divine Providence for preſerving, amidſt the deluded Rabble of hireling Sedition, your ſacred Perſon unharmed.

Sire, May the ſame Almighty Power ever protect you. May the ſame All-ſeeing Eye ever beam graciouſly around you. May the ſame infinite Goodneſs henceforward vouchſafe, that in Health and undiſturbed Happineſs your Majeſty may long, very long enjoy the well-deſerved Affections of all your Subjects, as you have hitherto reigned in the Hearts of all true Britons.

[Preſented by the Earl of Dalkeith, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough,]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodſtock, in Common Council aſſembled, impreſſed with Sentiments of unalterable Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty, who has invariably ſhewn yourſelf the firm Protector and Guardian of that happy Conſtitution, under which we enjoy the moſt invaluable Bleſſings, cannot refrain from expreſſing our Concern and Indignation at the outrageous Inſult and Violence lately offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Authority; and at the ſame Time we beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape and perſonal Safety.

Perceiving, under this daring Attempt upon your Majeſty, an Attack on our Laws and Liberties, and all that we hold dear to us, we feel the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life and Dignity lying nearer, if poſſible, to our Hearts than ever.

And that the Almighty, by whoſe Providence Kings reign, may long continue to us the Exerciſe of your Majeſty's publick and private Virtues, and grant your Majeſty a long and proſperous Reign over theſe Kingdoms, will never ceaſe to be the fervent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt faithful and dutiful Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, the 11th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Stafford, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to teſtify our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the atrocious Aſſault made upon your Majeſty in going to and returning from your Parliament; and to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, and that we will exert ourſelves to the utmoſt of our Power to ſupport and maintain the Laws and Conſtitution of this Kingdom.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall in the ſaid Borough, this 13th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

St. James's, November 21.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Royal Dumfries Volunteers.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, compoſing the Corps of Royal Dumfries Volunteers, penetrated by the recent and ſignal Interpoſition of Divine Providence in the Preſervation of your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon from the atrocious Attempt of a Set of lawleſs Ruffians, humbly hope that your Majeſty will graciouſly receive our unfeigned Congratulations.

Permitted by you, Sire, to embody ourſelves for the Preſervation of ſocial Tranquillity, we are filled with Indignation at every Attempt made to ſhake the the venerable and, we truſt, laſting Fabric of Britiſh Liberty.

We have directed our Major-Commandant to ſign this Addreſs in Name of the Corps, aſſembled at Dumfries, this 5th of November, 1795.

A. S. De Peyſter, Major-Commandant.

[Tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Queenſberry.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Council of the Town of Dumfries.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Dumfries, beg Leave in this Manner to approach your Royal Preſence, to expreſs our deep Concern at the traiterous and wicked Attempt which hath been lately made upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Life.

We regard, with the utmoſt Horror, the Principles which prompted ſo baſe a Deſign; and we lament that any Set of Men ſhould be ſo profligate as to aim, by Means ſo atrocious, at the Deſtruction of the Laws, the Peace, and Conſtitution of the Kingdom.

Moſt ſincerely we congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from a Danger ſo imminent; and we earneſtly pray that your Majeſty may be long preſerved to bleſs and reign over a free, a loyal, and a happy People.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we beg Permiſſion to aſſure your Majeſty of our faithful Attachment to your Perſon, Family, and Government; and of the general Reſpect which your Subjects in this Town entertain for the good Order and Conſtitution of the Country.

We have directed our Chief Magiſtrate, in Preſence of the Council aſſembled, to ſign this Addreſs in our Name, at Dumfries, the 6th Day of November, 1795. David Stair, Provoſt and Chief Magiſtrate of Dumfries.

[Tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Queenſberry.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Inverary.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to expreſs our juſt Indignation at the late moſt daring Inſult offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

While we reflect with Horror upon ſo atrocious and violent an Outrage, we are thankful to that over-ruling Providence which prevented its being attended with more unhappy Conſequences.

We humbly beg Leave to expreſs our earneſt Wiſh that thoſe concerned in a Crime of ſo heinous a Nature may ſpeedily be diſcovered and meet with that Puniſhment which their Wickedneſs deſerves: And we truſt that a Life, ſo valuable to all Ranks of your Majeſty's Subjects, may be long preſerved for the Happineſs of your Majeſty's Family and Kingdoms.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Conveener, Deacons and Maſters of the Incorporated Trades of Aberdeen, in Court aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, have heard, with deep Regret, of the Inſults lately offered to your Majeſty, when paſſing to and from your Parliament, by a miſguided Populace.

While we expreſs our Dete ation and Abhorrence of a Conduct ſo oppoſite to that which a gracious and affectionate Sovereign might naturally expect from his People, we are anxious upon this Occaſion humbly to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your mild and auſpicious Government.

We are, happily, Strangers to every Appearance of Diſaffection to your Royal Perſon, or Want of Reſpect to the Laws and Conſtitution of our Country; and it ſhall be our conſtant Endeavour to cheriſh, among thoſe with whom we are connected, every dutiful and loyal Sentiment.

We moſt ſincerely pray, that your Majeſty may long be preſerved, an eminent Example of every Virtue, the Father and Guardian of your People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Paiſley, met this Day in Preſbytery.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Paiſley, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the moſt lively Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection.

Senſible of the many Bleſſings which the People of this Kingdom have long enjoyed, and which they hope ſtill to enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, we think it our Duty to embrace this early Opportunity of congratulating your Majeſty on your Eſcape from the Danger to which your Majeſty was lately expoſed by the daring Attempts of ſome lawleſs and profligate Men, when in the public Diſcharge of the important Duties of your Royal Office.

We at the ſame Time feel it our Duty to expreſs our deep Abhorrence at ſuch an Outrage againſt your Majeſty's Perſon, convinced that on the Maintenance of your Authority and the Safety of your Perſon depend, under the Providence of God, the internal Peace of theſe Realms, and the Preſervation of our Civil and Religious Privileges.

We are happy to aſſure your Majeſty that, ſo far as we have obſerved, the ſame Sentiments prevail among the great Body of the People under our Charge in this populous County of Renfrew; and theſe Sentiments, as Miniſters of the Goſpel of Peace, we ſhall think it our Duty, both by Precept and Example, aſſiduouſly to cultivate.

That this Country may be ſoon bleſſed with a ſafe, honorable and permanent Peace, and that your Majeſty may be long preſerved to reign over a free, happy and united People, is the earneſt Prayer of, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Paiſley.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heretors of the County of Kincardine.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heretors of the County of Kincardine, aſſembled in a General Meeting, ſenſible of the Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government, beg Leave, with the utmoſt Veneration and Reſpect, to expreſs to your Gracious Majeſty the Horror and Indignation which we feel at the daring and outrageous Aſſault which was made againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and at the very Time when your Majeſty was performing the Functions of the Crown, and fulfilling your Part of our admirable Conſtitution. With the moſt humble Sentiments of Gratitude to the Almighty and all-wiſe Diſpoſer of Events, we congratulate your Majeſty on your Eſcape from a traiterous Attack, which tended at once to deprive us of our beloved Sovereign, and to ſubvert our glorious and invaluable Conſtitution. We alſo beg Leave faithfully to expreſs our moſt earneſt Wiſhes, that every Exertion may be uſed to bring thoſe daring Offenders to Juſtice, and that ſpeedy and effectual Meaſures may be deviſed to prevent ſuch horrible and atrocious Attempts for the future. And we do aſſure your Majeſty of our firm and determined Reſolution, not only to diſcourage, prevent, and ſuppreſs, by every Mean in our Power, all ſeditious and unlawful Publications, Practices, or Aſſemblies, and to diſcountenance and diſcover the Authors thereof, but alſo, when called upon, to come forward with Zeal and Unanimity in the Defence of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, and in the Support of your Government.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newport, in the Iſle of Wight, in Common Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Newport, beg Permiſſion to offer our warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's late happy Eſcape from the violent and abominable Attempt made on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

It is with great Satisfaction we underſtand that your Majeſty's faithful Parliament have already taken into their Conſideration the Means of more effectually guarding your ſacred Perſon from the future horrid Attacks of thoſe deteſted and unprincipled Wretches, who, deluded by treaſonable and ſeditious Societies, and under ſpecious Pretence of Reform, would deſtroy the Monarchy, and ſubvert that free and invaluable Conſtitution on which the Happineſs of your Majeſty's People, and the good Order of Society ſo eſſentially depend.

That the Almighty Power may continue to defend your Majeſty from every open and ſecret Enemy, during the Remainder of your Reign, (which we ardently wiſh may be long and happy) is the fervent and ſincere Prayer of your Majeſty's loyal and affectionate Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal the 12th Day of November, 1795.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Volunteers of Aberdeen.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Volunteers of Aberdeen, aſſociated in Defence of our happy Conſtitution, have heard, with no leſs Aſtoniſhment than Concern, of the late daring Inſult offered to your Majeſty by a miſguided Populace.

We beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on the Preſervation of a Life in which the Safety and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms are ſo deeply intereſted; and at the ſame Time to aſſure your Majeſty that we will on every Occaſion be ready to come forward in Support of the Conſtitution, the Protection of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and the Preſervation of good Order.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Campbellton, for ourſelves and in Behalf of the Community thereof, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the moſt unfeigned Sentiments of Loyalty and Congratulation, for your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late unprecedented, horrid and wicked Deſigns of evil-minded and deluded Men.

We ſincerely lament that in this Kingdom one Individual ſhould exiſt, ſo depraved in Principle and ſo loſt to every Senſe of Duty and Gratitude for the Bleſſings enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild Government and the Protection of the Britiſh Conſtitution, as to conceive in Imagination, far leſs to attempt, the Commiſſion of any Inſult, Injury or Violence to your gracious Perſon; and we feel Comfort in the Conviction that, on this Occaſion in particular, your Majeſty has been, and we pray may always continue, under the Favour and Protection of the King of Kings.

Abhorring the Principles and Practices of Miſcreants, that would plunge this Kingdom into Diſtreſs and Confuſion, we truſt thoſe Laws that have hitherto afforded them Security, will, on this Occaſion, be applied applied to bring down upon them thoſe Puniſhments which their Crimes ſo juſtly deſerve.

And as we are firmly attached to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and juſtly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under them, we declare our Reſolution to defend the one and to ſupport the other with our Lives and Fortunes, and truſt that your Majeſty may long reign in Peace and Security over a free and happy People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Magiſtrates of the North Riding of the County of York, aſſembled this 16th Day of November, 1795, at Northallerton, in the ſaid Riding, rejoice and congratulate your Majeſty upon being ſo providentially protected from the dreadful Conſequences of the violent Outrage attempted to be committed on your Royal Perſon in your Paſſage to meet your Parliament.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, beg Leave to approach yeur Majeſty, to expreſs our Horror and Indignation at the wicked Attempt lately intended againſt your Majeſty's Perſon, in going to and from your Parliament, by ſome of your deluded Subjects; declaring our utter Deteſtation of ſuch unwarrantable and flagitious Conduct; and being fully perſuaded that neither our Liberties, nor our Property, nor any Thing that we poſſeſs or enjoy, can be ſaid to be ſafe, if your Majeſty, who is the Guardian and Protector of our Laws, is in Danger.

Permit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, to congratulate your Majeſty on the providential Eſcape you have had from the unexampled and traiterous Attacks of your Enemies, which, if not immediately checked, muſt prove dangerous to our glorious and happy Conſtitution; and we are much concerned to find, that there ſhould exiſt a Combination of Men ſo daringly wicked as to attempt the Life of your ſacred Perſon, under whoſe mild and paternal Government we enjoy every Bleſſing and Happineſs.

We think it our Duty, therefore, as it is our Inclination, to expreſs our utmoſt Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and we ſincerely wiſh and hope, that your future Reign may be long, happy and glorious.

Sealed with our Corporation Seal this 16th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Corps of Towyn Volunteers (Merionethſhire Yeomanry) humbly preſume to expreſs our warmeſt Profeſſions of Attachment to the firſt and beſt Monarch of the Age, who, to the Honour of the Nation, now graces it's Throne.

With the deepeſt Concern, we read of the late daring and treaſonable Inſult towards your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and have not with Indifference obſerved, for ſome Time, a turbulent Inclination among the factious and diſappointed Part of your Majeſty's Subjects to overturn the conſtitutional Government and Religion of your Majeſty's Dominions.

It therefore behoves us ſolemnly to aſſure your Majeſty, that being our Duty, it is equally our Reſolution, to ſacrifice every Conſideration in Defence of your Majeſty, your Family, and the preſent happy Conſtitution of our Country.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, have been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE Preſbytery of Dundee beg Leave to approach your Throne with loyal and dutiful Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government. Equally aſtoniſhed and concerned at the late daring Outrages offered to your Majeſty in paſſing to and from the Parliament, we feel it incumbent upon us to take this earlieſt Opportunity of expreſſing our utmoſt Abhorrence at thoſe Proceedings, and our Gratitude to Almighty God for his diſtinguiſhed Goodneſs on that Occaſion to theſe Lands, in the ſafe and gracious Protection of your Majeſty from the Danger which then threatened.

Convinced as we are of the mild and benevolent Spirit which has invariably marked your Majeſty's Reign, and that none of your auguſt Predeceſſors who filled the Throne of theſe Kingdoms was ever more juſtly entitled to the diſtinguiſhed Appellation of Father of his People, we cannot reflect but with the higheſt Emotions of Surprize and Regret that there ſhould be any amongſt your Majeſty's Subjects ſo inſenſible to the Calls of national Duty and Gratitude, and ſo loſt to thoſe Principles which ſhould govern Men and Britons, as to conſpire maliciouſly to offer Inſult or Violence to your Royal Perſon, which every Conſideration, Divine and Human, teaches to revere. Under theſe Impreſſions, and from a Senſe of the deep Injury which both the Laws and Credit of the Nation have ſuſtained, while we fervently implore Almighty God that He may ſave your Majeſty from all Danger, may long ſpare you for the Welfare of theſe Lands, and that our excellent and unrivalled Conſtitution in all its Branches may ſurvive the Deſigns of its Enemies. We devoutly wiſh alſo, that the Meaſures adopted, with Advice of Parliament, for the Diſcovery of the Actors and Abettors of the late diſgraceful Tumults, may be followed with Succeſs, in order that, being convicted of the Offence done to your Majeſty, and in your Perſon, as their lawful Sovereign, to your People, they may be held forth as the deſerved Objects of public Diſapprobation, and may ſerve as Examples, by which the Ignorant and Wicked may be warned of the Danger of all ſuch baſe and illegal Counſel and Proceeding.

Devoutly acknowledging the Divine Interpoſition in your Majeſty's late Eſcape from Danger, we offer our Petitions at a Throne of Grace that no Acts of ſimilar unprecedented Atrocity may ſtain the Hiſtory of theſe Lands; that all the Machinations of your Enemies may prove abortive; that under your happy and mild Government the Hearts of the Diſobedient may be turned to the Wiſdom of the Juſt; and being long ſpared to promote the beſt Intereſts of your People, that you may finally be exalted to the Rewards of a Kingdom that ſhall never be moved.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your dutiful and loyal Subjects, your Edinburgh Volunteers, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our moſt hearty Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the atrocious Attempt lately made on your Royal Perſon, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our unſhaken Attachment to your Perſon, to your Family, and the happy Conſtitution of our Country.

While we regard with Horror that Attempt, we conſider it as a Proof that thoſe Traitors who contrived it know that in your Majeſty's Life conſiſts the firſt and ſureſt Safeguard of that free and happy Government which they ſeek to overthrow, and which we, and Thouſands more of your peaceful Subjects, are aſſociated in Arms to ſupport. Senſible of the high Degree of political Felicity ſecured by the Conſtitution to the Britiſh Realms, and having experienced the Enjoyment of that Felicity eminently heightened by the Wiſdom and Mildneſs of your Majeſty's Adminiſtration, we fervently wiſh that the Life of your Majeſty may be preſerved long, and that the Conſtitution may deſcend, without Interruption, under a Race of Princes of the Houſe of Hanover, to bleſs the moſt remote Poſterity.

We hold in Deteſtation and Abhorrence all Principles tending to Anarchy and Sedition, or to ſubvert the Conſtitution, which has been the Glory and Pride of our Anceſtors, and the only Security for a Continuance of the Bleſſings which we now enjoy.

We equally deteſt and abhor the Authors and Abettors of the late daring Attempt upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, in the Diſcharge of a great national Duty; and ſincerely truſt to the Vigour and Energy of the Executive Government, as well in bringing the Guilty to Puniſhment, as in ſuppreſſing all ſeditious and diſorderly Combinations tending to inflame the Minds of People, and leading them to commit the moſt atrocious criminal Acts. The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of the Burgh of Dundee.

HAPPY under the beſt of Governments, and in the mild Exerciſe of the Regal Power intruſted by the Conſtitution to our moſt Gracious Sovereign, it was with deep Regret we beheld a Spirit of Outrage dare to rear it's Head, even in the Capital of theſe Kingdoms, and under the Eye of Majeſty itſelf.

With Horror we beheld, in the Frenzy of the Moment, or the more atrocious premeditated Purpoſe, the ſacred Perſon of our King and Father endangered by the criminal Violence of his ungrateful Subjects.

Permit us, with heartfelt Satisfaction, to congratulate your Majeſty, your Royal and amiable Family, and the Nation at large, that a merciful Providence ſhielded your ſacred Perſon in the Hour of Danger.

A Diſpatch, of which the following is a Copy, has been this Day received by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Major-General Leigh, commanding His Majeſty's Troops in the Leeward Iſlands, dated Martinico, October 5, 1795.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to incloſe, for your Information, the Copy of a Letter I have received from Major-General Irving, dated at St. Vincent's, October 3, and to congratulate you on the good Behaviour of the Troops, and on the Succeſs of His Majeſty's Arms by the Poſſeſſion of the important Poſt of the Vigie on that Iſland.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

C. LEIGH.

Copy of a Letter from Major-General Irving to Major-General Leigh, dated Kingſton, St. Vincent's, Oct. 3, 1795.

SIR,

I Have the Honour to report to your Excellency, that, finding this Town extremely ſtreightened by the Enemy having Poſſeſſion of the Vigie, I judged it expedient to drive them from it, as the only Means to relieve it. I informed myſelf, from thoſe beſt acquainted with the Country, that a Height, called Fairbane's Hill, commanded the Vigie; upon this I formed my Plan of Attack. The Grenadiers and Light Infantry, with Four Companies of the 40th Regiment, were to gain the Hill on one Quarter, while the 59th Regiment, ſupported by Two Three-Pounders, were to force it on another; the whole marched at Three o'Clock Yeſterday Morning, ſo as to be at the Object by Daybreak. The firſt Diviſion gained the Height early in the Morning, with conſiderable Loſs; the 59th Regiment was early within Fifty Paces of the Enemy, and made ſeveral Attempts to gain the Poſt, but the natural Strength of the Ground, and the heavy Rain that unluckily fell at Daybreak, rendered the Place inacceſſible. The Troops having been expoſed the Whole of the Day to great Fatigues, and the Weather being very unfavourable, from violent Showers during the Day, and having no Poſſibility of providing the leaſt Shelter for them, I thought it moſt adviſeable to return to our former Quarters for the Night. Having ſufficient Reaſon to ſuppoſe the Enemy had abandoned their Poſts during the Night, I ordered out early this Morning a ſtrong Detachment of the St. Vincent's Rangers to take Poſſeſſion of it; and I have the Satisfaction to inform your Excellency, that the Britiſh Flag now diſplays itſelf there. We found all the Cannon and Ammunition there undeſtroyed. Brigadier-General Myers, by his able Conduct the whole Day, afforded me the moſt eſſential Service; and the higheſt Praiſe is due to this Army, both Officers and Men, for the Perſeverance, Diſcipline and Bravery they manifeſted in ſuſtaining an Action from Daybreak until Night in this Climate.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

P. IRVING, Major-General.
